<sup>1</sup>Acceptance time reflects a shipment's arrival at the Delta facility. Shipments originating outside of the U.S. require additional security procedures and may require added time during check-in. Required acceptance time for shipments containing dangerous goods increases by 30 minutes for small package services and 2 hours for all other cargo. Acceptance time for shipments containing dry ice or Class 9 dangerous goods increases by 30 minutes. Acceptance time increases by one hour if unscreened. Acceptance time is one hour closer to flight time for shipper-built units. Please check with your local Delta Cargo office for additional information on minimum acceptance times. <sup>2</sup>Recovery time does not include time required for Customs clearance. <sup>3</sup>An electronic booking is required to file a service level guarantee claim. Refund does not include surcharges or other miscellaneous fees. Service level guarantee does not apply when a truck is involved in the routing. Please see www.deltacargo.com for additional limitations / restrictions.
